Happy 5-Year anniversary

Can you believe it has already been five years since we saw the opening of Baskin-Robbins ice cream store at 3811 Center Street? Baskin-Robbins originated when brothers-in-law Burt Baskin and Irv Robbins started making ice cream for their fellow troops during World War II. In the past 70 years, Baskin-Robbins has expanded to 35 countries, and they are the world's largest chain of ice cream specialty shops. Don't forget that Baskin-Robbins carries a huge assortment of ice cream cakes – perfect for any occasion.
